

INGLÉS

SUGGESTED ANSWERS:

Question 1

1.a. True. So many happy people talking away into their mobile phones. (Connected at last!)

1.b. True. If you really have to either make or receive an urgent call during a social occasion, you should explain the situation to the others at the outset.

Question 2

Key ideas

2.a. They interrupt social acts / they seem to force you to accept a phone call and make you ignore the people you are with.

2.b. To rebel against the bad manners of rude phone users / to tell them to stop using the phone or to go away / when they are in your car, you should ask them to get out.

Question 3

3.a. perhaps

3.b. outset

3.c. apologise

3.d. come across

Question 4

4.a. using ----- applies / can be applied / should be applied / ...

4.b. have been ----- than

4.c. who ----- from

4.d. I asked the girl if / whether there was a mobile phone in her bag.